NATURAL SELECTION

Alongside the wine we sell by the glass, we also have a selection of natural wines available by the bottle. 'Natural wine?' you ask. They're generally organic or biodynamic, hand-harvested, use minimal sulphur and offer an intriguing counterpoint to much of the wine that's generally available today. Some might be a little funky and off the beaten track while others are straight up classics. Either way, we think you'll enjoy them.

Loxarel, Cora, Penedes - dry, peach, honeysuckle - 2016

Grapes: Xarel-lo, Sauvignon Blanc, Muscat

This blend of indigenous Xarel-lo from Barcelona is pure summer. Fresh, vibrant and a little fruity.

a thirty pound white

Sokol Blosser Evolution White (NV), Dundee Hills, Oregon - spicy, tropical, floral, dry

Grapes: Riesling, Pinot Gris, Semillon, Müller-Thurgau, Gewürztraminer, Muscat Canelli, Chardonnay, Early Muscat

"It's like mixing nine different colours of paint and trying to end up with a rainbow instead of a muddy brown."

Do yourself a favor and taste the rainbow.

a thirty five pound white

Koerner, Pigato, Vermentino, Clare Valley - dry, savoury, citrus - 2017

You mostly find Vermentino knocking around the Med but this unfiltered and unfiltered Aussie is a wonder. A bit of candied fruit, pear and grapefruit and weight on the palette make it one of our favourites.

a forty pound white

Ministry of Clouds, Chardonnay, Tasmania - nectarine, subtle wood, dry - 2015

This virtual winery simply follow the best grapes around Australia to produce styles of wine they want to make, which sounds like a pretty good idea to us. This Tasmanian Chardy is an absolute delight and will be a revelation to those who like classic white Bergundians.

a fifty pound white

Patrick Puize Chablis 1er Cru - apple, pineapple soda, dry - 2016

Grapes: Chardonnay

Patrick Puize is a bit of of rock star in the world of Chablis. Exclusively handpicking grapes from tiny plots of old vines in the originally designated area of Chablis may not seem revolutionary. And it isn't. But sadly it's now a rarity. This wine is a lip-smackingly good example of what can be done with a few white grapes.

a sixty pound white

Domaine de la Graveirette, Ju de Vie, Southern Rhone - blackberry, vibrant - 2016

Grapes: Merlot, Marselan, Grenache, Mourverde

Chock full of dark fruit but with a lightness of touch thanks to the vinification in concrete and stainless steel. One for fans of Chateauneuf-du-Pape. It's also biodynamic, don't you know.

a thirty pound red

Vinteloper, Urban Winery Project Red #6, Sydney and Adelaide - pepper, spice, blueberry - 2017

Grapes: Shiraz and Tempranillo

Made over two locations as a pop-up winery, this is classic Vinteloper – fresh, approachable and far, far, far too drinkable. One for fans of Rioja or Southern French reds.

a thirty five pound red

Testalonga, El Bandito, King of Grapes, Swartland - cranberry, raspberry, fresh - 2015

Grapes: Grenache

There are some wines every now and again and that give you a gentle shake and remind you that, when it comes down to it, wine is just made from grapes. This is one of those wines. Made in a super 'natural' style, it's bursting with acidity and a whole lot of funk. Expect cloudiness from this cult Swartland beaut.

a forty five pound red

Golden Cluster, Dion, Syrah, Willamette Vally, Oregon - blackberry, olive, herbs - 2015

Oregon is fast becoming a hotbed for modern American winemaking, with the Willamette Valley forming the backbone of the production area. A cool climate Syrah (and a tiny bit of Grenache), this wine will appeal to fans of Shiraz who like things just a little more restrained than the typical Aussie or French examples.

a fifty pound red

Joiseph, Tannenberg, Burgenland, Austria - cinnamon, cherry, raspberry - 2015

Grape: Zweigelt

A very, very, very lovely wine from eastern Austria. It's a tiny production (only 400 bottles) from a tiny vineyard (0.9ha) and while it might not be a household name, this Zweigelt is a must for those wanting a lighter style red. Organic, unfiltered, unfiltered, no added sulphur.
